

SPEAKERS BUREAU

Presentation Information

Presentation Category	Miscellaneous
Presentation Title	Active Shooter Preparedness and Response
Presentation Length	180 Minutes, can be adjusted
Presentation Objective	The presentation will aid the audience in being more situationally aware and provide insight on prevention. It will provide information on being better prepared to survive and deal with an Active Shooter incident.
Presentation Description	Chief Cullen will present on the topic of Active Shooter Preparedness, Prevention, Response and Recovery. The presentation will address the history of Active Shooters and what has been learned by studying incidents over the past 20 years. He will provide statistics related to Active Shooter incidents and talk about actions citizens can take to protect themselves. Additionally, the presentation will focus on observable behaviors of Active Shooters and what the public can do to assist law enforcement in identifying an Active Shooter prior to the incident so law enforcement can take a proactive and measured response. This presentation will arm the audience with the knowledge and insight to be prepared for, prevent, and respond to the challenges faced due to an Active Shooter incident.
Speaker Name & Session	James A. Cullen, NA Session 243
Speaker Phone Number	617-633-4850
Speaker Email	jacullen@comcast.net

Speaker's Biography

James Cullen is a veteran police officer having served full-time since 1993 and is the Deputy Chief of the Groton Police Department in Groton, Massachusetts. Through the Police Executive Fellowship Program, he is also a Task Force Officer assigned to the FBI Violence Reduction Unit Active Shooter Team. He holds certifications as an Active Shooter Instructor in both Law Enforcement and Civilian disciplines. He was a 12-year member of the North Eastern Massachusetts Law Enforcement Council (NEMLEC) Regional Response Team and is a graduate of the FBI Crisis Negotiation Course. Chief Cullen has earned two Master's Degrees, one in Criminal Justice Administration from Western New England College and the second in Leadership from Norwich University. He is a proud graduate of the 243rd Session of the FBI National Academy in Quantico, Virginia.

Chief Cullen presents at the FBINAA's ongoing School Shooting Prevention Leadership Forum series. Chief Cullen has provided training in the Leadership Forums in California, PA, and Chicago, IL and is scheduled to present at the 2019 Atlantic City, NJ and Boston, MA forums.