FBINAA Leadership Certification Program

Frequently Asked Questions

- Q - Do you have to take Course 1 before you take Course 2? Or can you take them in any order?
A – There is no order requirement, you can take them in the order that best fits your and your departments schedule.
- Q – Will there more course offerings than the ones I see on the website? A – Yes, we are always looking to book additional courses with enough offerings to accommodate the numerous officers interested in locations across the country. As soon as they are booked, they will go up on our website.
- Q – Is prepayment required to register for a course?
A – No, you can prepay, however it is not required.
- Q – Do you have to be a sworn law enforcement officer to take these courses? A – No, but it is highly preferred. Non-sworn can attend only if they are in a criminal justice position that is directly related to or has a direct impact on law enforcement.
- Q – What is the process to get assigned the research paper?
A – Once you complete the three courses, scan the three certificates and email them to our Director of Education and Training and you will receive your paper assignment with instructions. Email to: Tony Bailey at tbailey@fbinaa.org
- Q – Do all three courses and the paper need to be completed within the calendar year? A- No, with tight budgets and time constraints, the process should be completed within two years from starting it.
- Q – How long is the FBINAA Leadership Certification good for? How do I recertify? A – The certification is good for 3 years and can be renewed for another 3 years by attending another FBINAA Leadership Forum, the FBINAA National Conference or 16 hours of FBINAA online offerings.

Q – Can my department host one of these courses? What is the process? A – Yes you can apply, numerous departments have applied so not every request can be accommodated. If you want to host Course 1 or 2 reach out to Sara Barnett at training@lrmi.com and if you want to host a Leadership Forum contact Tony Bailey at tbailey@fbinaa.org.

Q – Can my department contract with the FBINAA bring the LCP directly to our agency for our officers?

A – Yes the FBINAA can bring the 3 courses into your agency for a flat rate. These courses can be taught back-to-back to complete the entire program as quickly and cost efficiently as possible for the agency. For more information reach out to Tony Bailey at tbailey@fbinaa.org.
