

SPEAKERS BUREAU

Presentation Information

Presentation Category	Miscellaneous
Presentation Title
Presentation Length	Minutes
Presentation Objective	Identify what an agency needs to know about threat and risk assessment investigations. How to avoid missing the clues of a future active-shooter. Current methods, techniques, qualified investigators, and creating an evidenced-based investigative-practice & case management is discussed. Case examples provide discussion for theory & practice.
Presentation Description	The presentation discusses best practice methods for threat assessment and risk management for administrators. With the increase of credible threats and the devastation caused by active shooters, law enforcement cannot afford to underestimate threat potential and the need for threat management. Don't miss the clues.
Speaker Name & Session	W. Patrick Kenny, NA Session 237
Speaker Phone Number	561-723-3147
Speaker Email	behavioralconsulting@comcast.net
Speaker's Biography	Patrick Kenny is a 39-year law enforcement professional, retiring from the Palm Beach Sheriff's Office as a captain. He developed the Behavioral Services Division, an evidenced-based threat and risk management component. Patrick served in patrol, investigations, and administration throughout the ranks. He is a graduate of the FBINA, class 237 and is a Florida

	area rep for the NA. He is an adjunct professor at private and state universities. Also, he has presented at the FBINA and to other law enforcement agencies. He currently consults for PERF and private threat management companies as well as public law enforcement agencies. Patrick holds a Ph.D. in psychology and is a licensed therapist.
--	--