

SPEAKERS BUREAU

Presentation Information

Presentation Category	Ethical Excellence
Presentation Title	Ethics Challenges in Law Enforcement
Presentation Length	120-240 Minutes
Presentation Objective	To have an open discussion on the importance of ethics today in the law enforcement world. We must realize that everything we do and say on and off duty can affect us.
Presentation Description	Officers today must realize that everything they do on and off duty can affect them. Personal feelings, political views and social issues must be considered 24/7. That also includes family members, friends and associations. Social media has changed our society and we have to realize that the texts we send, the photos we share can affect us and our departments in many ways.
Speaker Name & Session	Terry Vrabec, NA Session 186
Speaker Phone Number	907-500-5414
Speaker Email	tevrabec@icloud.com
Speaker's Biography	Former law enforcement officer with experience in small towns, large cities, university settings, as well as statewide high level administrative positions and legislative experience. Currently teaching at multiple colleges in the area of ethics and other criminal justice classes.