

SPEAKERS BUREAU

Presentation Information

Presentation Category	Executive Leadership
Presentation Title	Leading Warriors from the Back of Giants
Presentation Length	Full Class is 16 Hours, can be adjusted for a 12-, 8-, or 4-hour class
Presentation Objective	Presenting Leadership mistakes and how we overcome them using firsthand experience and the common sense that comes from practical law enforcement experience from uniform patrol, detective bureaus, special operations and administration.
Presentation Description	Class is based on the book “Leading Warriors from the Backs of Giants”. Classroom setting with power-point and handouts for participant interaction that breaks down the basic mistakes we all make as leaders in Law Enforcement. Group discussions on why these mistakes keep repeating themselves despite the different personnel and agencies. Goals to accomplish and monitor to show that we are leading down the right path.
Speaker Name & Session	Tom Long, NA Session 141
Speaker Phone Number	901-351-6254; 662-449-1045
Speaker Email	tomlongtoss@yahoo.com
Speaker’s Biography	Tom Long is a law enforcement veteran having retired in 2016 with thirty-eight years of service. He has been a firearm’s and tactical combat/SWAT instructor for the past thirty-five years. Tom is a graduate of the FBI National Academy and thousands of hours of police training. At the time he retired, He was the longest serving Police Chief in Mississippi at 26 years.

He is a past President of the Mississippi Tactical Officers Association and Memphis Metropolitan Association of Chiefs of Police. He is a recognized law enforcement expert in police firearms, pursuits, policy and procedure in local, state and federal court levels. As part of an advanced teaching cadre or as an individual Instructor, Tom has taught thousands of military Special Forces personnel and Federal, State and local Law Enforcement officers from around the world. He is the author of two books dealing with firearms instruction and law enforcement leadership.

When he retired in January of 2016, he published “Leading Warriors from the Backs of Giants”. A book written based on his law enforcement career and all the lessons he had learned leading and being led. His leadership seminars are practical and common sense based; with content everyone in Law Enforcement can relate to no matter their position in the department or the size of their agency.