

SPEAKERS BUREAU

Presentation Information

Presentation Category	Executive Leadership/Ethical Excellence
Presentation Title	Our Nobel Profession, A Refresher
Presentation Length	Keynote Opportunity or 1-Day
Presentation Objective	The trainee will be reminded of the nobility of the law enforcement profession and what a privilege it is to be a member of the profession. They will also understand the importance of beliefs in our profession.
Presentation Description	We need to remember the importance of our membership in a noble profession. Regardless of what is going on politically and economically, warriors/guardians continue to be courageous, selfless, and pay the ultimate sacrifice for our communities. We fight the good fight, no matter what! Since the beginning of time warriors have performed during times of adversity and hardship. Warriors have protected those who can't protect themselves for hundreds of years. We have a responsibility to the warriors of the past to never betray them or their sacrifices.
Speaker Name & Session	Neal Rossow, NA Session 212
Speaker Phone Number	810-434-5920
Speaker Email	info@therossowgroup.com
Speaker's Biography	Neal started his police career in 1978 as a patrol officer with the Marine City Police Department for three years. He retired as the Chief of Police for the Flat Rock (MI) Police Department in 2014. He was appointed as chief in 2008. In 2006, he retired after 25 years of service as the Captain of Support Services with the Port Huron (MI) Police Department. He was the Director of Professional Development for the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police from 2014 until 2022.

He was responsible for creating the Michigan Law Enforcement Accreditation Program and is the program director.

Mr. Rossow holds a master's degree and bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from Wayne State University. He is a graduate of FBI National Academy (Session 212) and the Northwestern University Traffic Institute School of Police Staff and Command (Class 86).

He was an adjunct faculty member at the St. Clair County Community College from 1989 until 2021. He has taught at the basic academy level and for the IACP, FBI-LEEDA, Northwestern University, LLRMI, Eastern Michigan University, and the Virginia Center for Policing Innovation. He continues to be an instructor, a presenter and keynote speaker at numerous national and state conferences.

Neal was a member of the United States Air Force (1973-1976) and received an Honorable Discharge.