

Human Trafficking

Human Trafficking – the title should disturb you; human trafficking involves the use of force, fraud, or coercion for sexual acts. Is your state in the top 10 for human trafficking? You will be surprised. Human trafficking is showing a disturbing upward trend over the years which compelled the FBI National Academy Associates to create this two-day Leadership Forum for first responders throughout the country. The Forum will provide attendees with the knowledge, skills and resources needed to improve identification, investigation and ultimately prosecution of these cases.

Course Objectives:

- Knowledge of current trends, tactics, and techniques in these investigations
- Leaders will learn the importance of making these cases priorities in their agencies
- Attendees will leave with a legal knowledge of the use and legalities of the latest investigative technologies
- Law Enforcement Leaders, through case studies will see the complexity and challenges of these cases
- Insight on how to collaborate effectively with other agencies; both Federal & State, to handle and get these cases solved

The FBI National Academy Associates is dedicated to providing the highest degree of law enforcement expertise, leadership training, and information to law enforcement executives around the world. The FBINAA Gold Standard Training is open to all FBINAA members, as well as anyone in the criminal justice field who wants to expand and develop their leadership skills in order to strengthen their knowledge base, their departments, and their communities.
